

Sugar Loans Box

This box covers many areas of study:

- Growing Sugar
- Making Sugar
- Sugar use in 18th century
- The Sugar Cone
- The Sugar Trade
- Changes to Caribbean land use as a result of the sugar industry
- Life of the Slave
- Anti Slavery issues
- Extension work considering the implications using a compass rose framework (Natural, Social, Economic & Who decides)

The box comes with several 18th century artefacts to examine and copies of authentic archive to aid the study process

Links to QCA Schemes of Work

History at key stage 3 (Year 8)

Unit 11: Industrial changes action and reaction: The use of this box will enhance the delivery of this unit by setting patterns of change in the 18th & 19th century in an international context.

History at key stage 3 (Year 8/9)

Unit 14: The British Empire : The box will enhance the teaching of section 2; how did overseas trade lead to the building of a powerful Empire of colonies.

History at key stage 3 (Year 9)

Unit 15: Black peoples of America from slavery to equality? This box will complement the teaching of section 4 'Black Peoples from America into Slavery' by placing it in the 18th context, using 18th century resources.

Geography at key stage 3 (Year 8)

Unit 14: Can the earth cope? Ecosystems, population and resources. Using sugar as an example, students can investigate its global distribution and investigate the environmental issues and consequences.

Geography at key stage 3 (Year 9)

Unit 16: What is development? Using sugar as an example and looking at patterns of consumption in the 18th century start to appreciate the complex issues of international trade.

Tea Loans Box

The areas of study included:

- Growing and processing tea
- The cost of tea
- Who drank tea
- Making and serving tea
- Types of tea
- Properties of tea
- Extension work considering the implications using a compass rose framework (Natural, Social, Economic & Who decides)

The box comes with several 18th century artefacts to examine and copies of authentic archive to aid the study process

Links to QCA Schemes of Work

History at key stage 3 (Year 8)

Unit 11: Industrial changes action and reaction: The use of this box will enhance the delivery of this unit by setting patterns of change in the 18th & 19th century in an international context.

History at key stage 3 (Year 8/9)

Unit 14: The British Empire: The box will enhance the teaching of section 2; how did overseas trade lead to the building of a powerful Empire of colonies.

Geography at key stage 3 (Year 9)

Unit 16: What is development? Using tea as an example and looking at patterns of consumption in the 18th century start to appreciate the complex issues of international trade.