

Soho House Trail

For Key Stage One

Matthew Boulton lived in the 18th century – that was a very long time ago – more than 200 years in fact!

Here's a picture of a wealthy family, like the Boultons, for you to colour in!

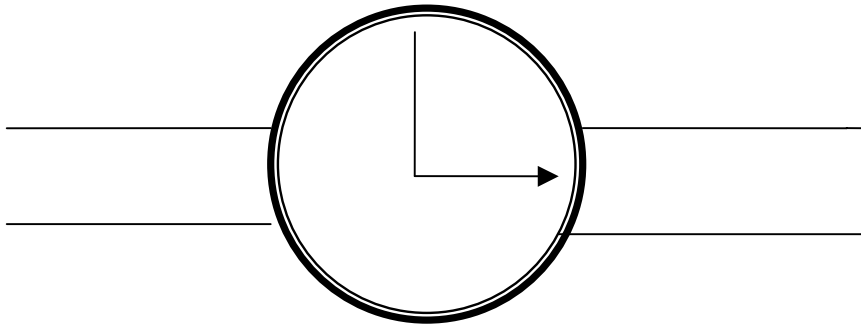

MANUFACTORY

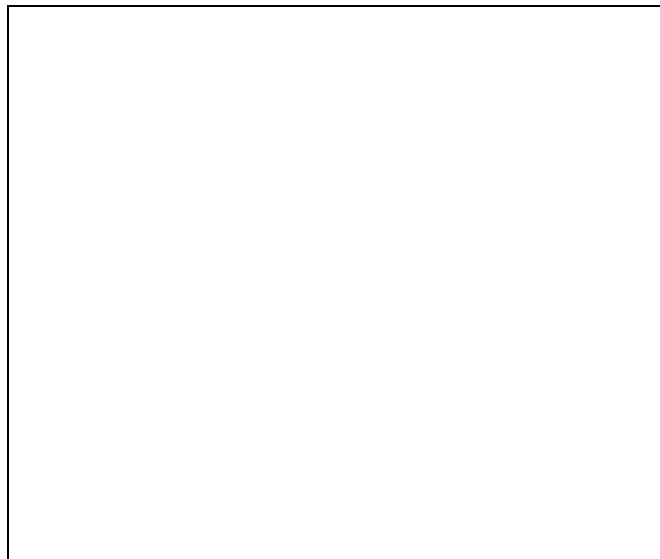

Matthew Boulton once had a very big factory right by Soho House - here's a drawing of how it looked →

It was called a "manufactory"

They made lots of different things there, including watches. Can you fill in the details to make a nice watch?

Look in the glass cases which show things that were made in the manufactory. Draw and name one of these things in the box!

VISITOR CENTRE

Matthew Boulton made sure his son and daughter were educated. Here's a picture of a school in the 18th century – can you colour it in?

Is it different to your school? _____

Are there any girls? _____
